Art Unit: 1618

Claims 1-27 are presented for examination.

The amendments and remarks filed on August 19, 2005 have been received and entered.

Claims 1, 2, 4-10, 15, 18-24 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 as being anticipated by Lipari (U.S. Patent 4,383,992) for the reasons set forth on page 2 of the office action of March 24, 2004.

Claims 3, 11, 12, 14, 16, 17, 25 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 as being unpatentable over lipari (U.S. Patent 4,383,992) and Loftsson (U.S. Patent 4,383,992) for the reasons set forth on pages 2 and 3 of the office action of March 24, 2004.

Applicant's arguments and remarks have been carefully considered, but are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicant refers to Example 2 and graph 4 to demonstrate the advantage of the claimed invention over the prior art. Since the prior art teaches all the ingredients as claimed herein, such composition would inherently have the properties as applicant is relying upon for showing the advantage of the claimed composition and administration. It is reasonable to conclude that the same patient being administered the same composition by the same mode of administration in both the instant claims and the prior art reference. The fact that applicant may have discovered yet another beneficial effect from the method set forth in the prior art does not mean that they are entitled to receive a patent on the method and composition thereof. It is general rule that merely discovering and claiming a new benefit of an old process cannot render the process again patentable. In re Woodruff, 16 USPQ2d 1934, 1936 (Fed.Cir. 1990). It does not appear that the claim language or limitations result in the method steps when compared to prior art disclosure. See Bristol-Myers Company v. Ben Venue laboratories 58 USPQ2d 1508 (CAFC 2001).

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
